Chat Room Rules

Our chat room rules are actually very simple. We here at Shadow Talk Paranormal Radio do require everyone to follow these rules or they will be booted from the chat immediately.

1. No soliciting. Nobody is allowed to come into the chat room and sell anything. This rule also includes dating. This is not a dating site, it is a paranormal talk radio site and will not allow any selling of merchandise or any dating.
2. There is to be no profanity that exceeds a pg-13 rating. That means that you can say "damn" but you cannot use the F-bomb. Let's keep it respectable people!
3. We will be respectful of each other and our guest. We will not use this forum to degrade anyone in any way. We will simply keep it respectful all the way around!

There you have it...the simple set of rules that govern our chat room here at Shadow Talk. If you feel that you can follow these few rules and have a good time, then by all means come on in and join us in the chat! If you feel that these rules are just way too much to follow, then please, skip the sign-in process and stay out of the chat.
